LOCAL AND GENERAL

-Old Hats trimmed over at Mrs. Hall's.

-B. F. Stevens has advertised to sell his personal property on May 19.

-N. E. Hall's 5 cent worsted will surprise you.

-Overshirts of all colors and sizes at N. E. Hall's.

-Hon. Moses Whybark is a member of the Republican State Central Committee.

-Children's sailor hats for 20 cts. at Mrs. Hall's.

-For first class cigars, go to the barber shop, Lutesville.

-N. E. Hall's 6 cent Challie sells like hot ginger cakes at election.

-Save your dollars by trading with us—King & Revelle.

-Bring your bacon, wool and lard to Drum's and get the best price.

-Drum sells ladies' good button shoe for only one dollar per pair.

-George Kurre and his sister, Mrs. Drum, went to Vastor the last of last week.

-Gents', Boys' and Children's summer hats at Drum's by the wholesale.

-The Bollinger County Bank buys county warrants and good notes.

-St. Louis has more inhabitants than the states of Rhode Island, Wyoming and Nevada combined.

-If you are going to buy any kind of harvesting machinery, Bohnsack wants to see you.

-Lace and chiffon hats are the latest. Go to Mrs. Jaques' for all such novelties.

-Louis Thacker robbed a swarm of wild bees of thirty-five pounds of honey, and captured the bees, last week.

-N. E. Hall's is the place to obtain a bargain when you need chevron.

-You can see samples of Moore & Holmes work in the Marble Hill Postoffice.

-The Lutesville Sunday School will go to Glen Allen Sunday to the convention. Mrs. Hall's class will carry the banner from Lutesville.

-Listen! 4,999 yards of nice prints at N. E. Hall's, only 5 cents a yard.

-Ladies, at Drum's is the place to get a nice shoe and good hose for little money.

-Miss Rosa Fisher has gone to the City to lay in her summer stock of Millinery goods. Wait until she returns to buy your summer hats.

-N. E. Hall's Bedford cord goes like the rest of his goods. How? Cheap.

-Ladies' patent leather Oxford ties at N. E. Hall's. Oh, my! How pretty they are.

-KING & REVELLE.—There is something of interest for all in our magnificent stock of spring and summer goods, consisting of Dry-goods, Groceries, Clothing, Cheese, Lard, Furnishing Goods, Notions, etc., in which every particular item was carefully judged as to its relative worth before being purchased—and good judgment in buying and fair prices in selling enables us to be of profitable service to our friends, whose trade, both in cash and produce, we earnestly solicit. Respectfully,
KING & REVELLE.

-Sewing machines at Sample & Kinder's.

-New goods arriving very often at Mrs. Jaques.

-Married—At the residence of the bride's parents, near whitewater Church, May 4, 1892, by W. H. Roberts of Ironton, Mr. Luke H. Conrad and Miss Anna E. Miller, both of Bollinger County.

-Ladies, Drum's is the place to buy a nice low slipper or Oxford tie, from one dollar up.*

-Drum's is the place to get a nice chally, lawn or calico dress for only 5 cts. per yard.*

-W. E. Rockwell's stock of goods has been transferred to A. Baer. The store is being conducted by a gentleman from St. Louis. Mr. Rockwell has been retained as a clerk at a good salary.

-Take your wool to Drum's. He pays the highest prices, and everybody knows that he sells goods the cheapest.

-The Milwaukee Harvesting Co. is in the field with some greatly improved machinery this year. A. Bohnsack is their agent at this place.

-The editor is in Sedalia this week, and this shebang has a case of the tail wagging the animal. "We" thought "we" would get to air this fertile brain of "ours" during his absence, but, alas, man is doomed to disappointment—Hobbs and other correspondents have hogged the issue—boo-hoo-o-o!

-Sample & Kinder will sell you a sewing machine for less money than any house in Southeast Mo.

-Read and hearken unto the call! 100 ladies vests at N. E. Hall's, at 10 cents apiece only.

-Moore & Holmes of Jackson, Mo., have pitched their Mammoth Photographic tent in Lutesville.

-Never say anything about a person simply because you do not like him. He may have enough good qualities about him that you do not know of, more than to redeem all the bad ones. And then we are only here a little while—a few short years—and when the clouds rattle on the coffin lid of the dust you have slandered, you will feel ashamed of yourself, or ought to.—Wylie Rustler.

-N. E. Hall's stock of shoes is complete. Why? Because his entire stock is new. No old stock lying on the shelves.

-A. Bohnsack is agent for all kinds of grain and grass cutting machinery manufactured by the Milwaukee Harvesting Company.

-The S. E. Missouri Medical Association met at Cape Girardeau Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Dr. C. M. Witmer, the only representative from Bollinger County, reports a good attendance and a good time. The M. D.'s were escorted to all the places of interest in the city and then given a magnificent banquet at Scott's restaurant, by the hospitable people of the Cape.

STRAYED from my farm on Perkins' Creek, about 1 1/2 miles from Zaleski, the following described cattle: 1 muley cow, 1 white cow with bell on, 1 light red, 1 red and white spotted cow, 1 2 year-old red heifer with bell on, and 4 1-year-old calves, all marked with a hole and underbit in the left ear.

$5 reward for information that will lead to the recovery of the stock.
ANTON PETER.

LUTESVILLE LOCALS.

Mrs. F. Peters has been quite sick.

Mrs. Biggs went to St. Louis, Wednesday.

Mrs. F. A. Stanton, we learn, is quite sick.

Harry Dukin has been very sick, but is better.

Henry Baker of Oran is here on a visit to his brother, G. W. Baker.

-Sample & Kinder have sold more sewing machines than any retail house in Southeast Mo.

-This paper will not be held in any way responsible for the expressions and utterances of correspondents.

Dr. Biggs went to Sedalia Monday to the Democratic convention.

L. Dunkin has moved into one of W. W. Sample's dwelling houses.

-Ladies, please call and see the beautiful embroidery and flouncing for dresses, at King & Revelle's, Lutesville, Mo. 2t

Dr. Burford of Gravel Hill was visiting relatives here the first of the week.

Large hats at Mrs. Hall's—5, 10, 15 and 25 cts. Strawberry pickers should call early.

Mrs. Solomon, who has been spending the winter in St. Louis, came home last Tuesday.

-I have one Berkshire brood sow, five pigs and six 6-months-old shoats for sale at a bargain. GEO. E. STATLER, Lutesville.

Rev. Price of Wayne county moved into the property which was vacated by Mr. Burkett.

-The business hen—the brown leghorn. Eggs for hatching 50 cts per setting of 15. 25 cts for 7 eggs. John Luke, Leopold, Mo.

Dr. Back has his office now in Dr. Biggs' property, where the millinery shop use to be.

-Because we sell Leghorn eggs at so low a price, please don't for a minute entertain the notion they are inferior stock, or mixed. John Luke, Leopold.

Strawberries are coming in slowly. We anticipate a fine eating time in the near future.

-Moore & Holmes of Jackson, Mo., have opened up a branch photographic gallery in Lutesville. It will pay you to go and examine the fine pictures that they are now turning out.

Rev. Price has a part of the machinery on the ground at this place for his planing mill.

-Tis folly to send away for what you can get at your door. Mrs. Jaques will order you a handsome China silk lace or embroidered dress as cheap as it can be obtained anywhere.

-A large supply of stylish hats, mull caps, fine laces, buttons and dress trimmings will be added to Mrs. Jaques' already large stock of millinery, in Lutesville, where she invites you to inspect goods and learn prices before purchasing.

-If you want this paper and the "twice-a-week" Republic, of St. Louis, send us $1.75.

The first case of strawberries of the season was shipped from this place Tuesday to St. Louis, by A. Mayer.

-My! my! What a pile of Drygoods that man Drum has in his big store! I don't see what he does with them! But they say he sells them, because he sells cheaper than anybody else in the county.

W. H. Smith, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Biggs, returned to his home in Kentucky, on the 4th inst.

-Mrs. N. E. Hall has bought Mrs. Biggs' interest in the millinery store, and moved the goods into N. E. Hall's store. Persons wanting cheap and stylish millinery should call on her.

Mat Boies returned home Monday. Mat got too close to the business end of a mule, and is at home for repairs.

-Oh, my! did you ever see such a large stock of nice dress goods as Drum has got to select from? He has goods to suit everyone. You can get a nice calico dress for only 5 cents per yard.

The Town Board held a meeting Monday eve., and elected W. A. Leffler as principal teacher of the public school, raising his wages ten dollars over last year.

-Ladies, if you want to buy a nice dress, go to King & Revelle's, where you will find a well-selected stock of black satines, black linens, black cashmeres, white goods—in fact, anything and everything for a nice dress.

-J. A. Shea & Co., are doing a large commission business at Minneapolis and St. Paul Minnesota. They are regarded as one of the best houses in the country. Consignments to this firm are enormous, as they do a very extensive commission business all over the country. They give good references as to their reliability. See their add. in this weeks paper and remember them when the berry and fruit seasons opens.
